BLANKETS—GEO. M. SNOOK &amp; CO.

SEE OUR GREAT LEADERS IN ALL WOOL BLANKETS AT

$1.89 PAIR, $2.47 PAIR, $3.95 PAIR.

HIS store is "all right" on the Blanket question from A to Z. About three thousand pairs of Blankets here, nearly all of which came from the CELEBRATED ST. MARY'S WOOLEN MILL. This mill was destroyed by fire something over a year ago, but has since been rebuilt and supplied with the LATEST IM-PROVED MACHINERY, which places it, more than ever, in the front ranks of the Blanket Factories of America. We have secured the exclusive sale in Wheeling of their full line, although another firm in this city wanted it just as badly as we did. Mention this simply as evidencing the great desirability of the St. Mary's Blankets.

St. Mary's Blankets come in white, grey, scarlet, plaid and high colors—in 10-4, 11-4, 12-4 and 13-4 sizes, in napped, un-napped and unshrinkable, in medium, fine and extra fine grades. In short, the better class of Blankets. To start in motion the Blanket business of 1897, we place on sale 300 pairs of a prime quality, in white, scarlet and plaid, at $3.95 pair. About twenty finer grades up to $18.00 pair. The following are good all-wool Country Blankets, but not St. Mary's: 100 pairs all wool Scarlet at $1.89 pair; 100 pairs all-wool White at $2.47 pair. The following have not a trace of wool in them, but they are good substitutes for cheap comforts; 200 pairs Cotton Blankets 39¢ pair; 200 pairs at 47¢ pair; 200 pairs at 98¢ pair. See window display.

A Farewell Reception.

Dr. A. B. Riker, the retiring pastor of the Fourth street M. E. church, was tendered a farewell reception last night by the Epworth League of that church. A pleasing programme of musical and literary selections was rendered in the Sunday school room, where the reception took place. Choice refreshments were served.

Expressions of regret at the pastor's departure were tendered by leading members of the church and the various church organizations, to which Dr. Riker made a suitable reply. Many were present who are not members of the church, but called to say good bye to a minister who has endeared himself to all good citizens during his five-year pastorate in this city. He will carry with him to his new field at Charleston the good wishes of the whole community.

Police Doings.

August Zimmer was arrested yesterday by Officer McCausland for insulting ladies on the stone bridge. He will get the full extent of the law, but even that is too mild punishment for such an offender.

Ed. Parker and a "gentleman from Chicago," named Goodfriend, got into a fight in a Market square saloon yesterday afternoon, over a game of dice and Officer McCausland settled the dispute by handing them in the lock-

The Evangelists made so much noise while conducting their services at the corner of Fourteenth and Market people doing business in that vicinity appealed to the mayor. The police were ordered to regulate matters, and Lieu-to hunt other fields of labor where business would not be interrupted by their expounding of the gospel.

A GOOD STRIKE

Made by the Henry Oil Company in Monroe County.

THE DRILL FOUND THE GREASE

Yesterday Morning After an Unfavorable Showing Just Before—In the Second Day the Well Started at a Great Rate—The Price Strike is in the Same Neighborhood—Possibly an Extensive Pool Has Been Found—Other Operations.

One of the most important strikes made in the lower southwest oil fields for a long time is that of the Henry Oil Company on the Holtsclaw farm in the vicinity of Benwood, in Monroe county, O. This well, which has been due for some days was drilled to the first pay sand yesterday morning, and all the indications pointed to a dry hole. It was decided to drill the well deeper, and after a short time drilling, the second pay was struck and the well started off at a great rate, and the indications are that it will make even a better well than the Price well of the Fisher Oil Company, which was drilled in some time ago and started off at over 200 barrels a day.

When the Price well was first drilled in it started off at the above rate, but the matter was kept quiet by the owners for a few days, as there was quite a lot of territory that they wanted to get hold of. The territory secured, they gave out that their well was a good one and that it was making about 100 barrels, when in reality it was making the amount stated.

Since the strike of the Henry Company, on the Holtsclaw farm, this morning, the excitement in oil circles over the news has become intense, and quite a number of people have gone out from Sistersville to see the new well and to try to get hold of territory if possible. The Henry Oil Company's well is not a great distance from the Price well, but it is even a better well than that and it shows conclusively that there is something there worth going after.

One good thing about this strike is that the oil is found in the Big Injun formation under circumstances very similar to the Sistersville field. There is considerable suit water with the oil and this is taken as an indication that another pool has been discovered that may yet equal the old pool in the immediate vicinity of Sistersville.

There is a good deal of work going on in that section since the Fisher Company brought in its good well on the Price farm, and several of the wells have been due for some time, but have been delayed with fishing jobs. The Fisher company is drilling several wells and two of them are on the Price farm. Their No. 3 on the Price is in the bottom of the line and should reach the pay before the last of the week. The same company is drilling on other territory and the No. 1 on the Woods farm should be in the last of the week.

The same company has a fishing job at No. 1 on the Cehrs farm, and it may be some time before they will be able to get it drilled in. They have projected quite a lot of new work and will push it along rapidly now, as more good wells have been drilled in.

The Henry Oil Company has made a number of new locations on territory over in that section and is already hauling out the material to start work. Several wells are drilling now and some of them should reach the sand in a few days.

The only other parties that have been doing any work in that section are Shay & McMillen, who will have a well due on their lease the latter part of the week. The principal holders of the territory are the Fisher and Henry oil companies and they will drill as rapidly as possible.

New Well Started.

The Rogerson well, number four, was abandoned Sunday, on account of the tools getting lost. The derrick was moved yesterday and a new hole started fifteen feet from the other well. This will be in about ten days. The indications are very good. This well belongs to the North Penn Oil Company composed of Wheeling people.
